Contemporary Maritime Piracy as an Issue of Academic Inquiry. A Bibliography

Compiled by Piracy-Studies.org

Version: May 2011

The aim of this bibliography is to gather a complete collection of academic works on contemporary (post WWII) maritime piracy, with a focus on academic books, journals and working paper. In addition the bibliography includes some titles on the history of piracy, and some general interest literature on piracy.

There are two ways by which you can contribute to making this bibliography complete.

You might want to join our Research Group on Mendeley. The bibliography uses the Mendeley Research network. Mendeley is a full fledged bibliographic software with integrated web 2.0 functionality. In joining the Piracy Studies Research Group on Mendeley, you can download the references to the reference software of your preference. You will also be able to add items and you will receive a frequent update of items added.

Alternatively visit the website http://piracy-studies.org got to the site ‘Scientific Literature’ and use the comment function you find at the end of the page.

Petrig, Anna. 2011. Sea Piracy Law / Droit de la piraterie maritime, Selected National Legal Frameworks and Regional Legislative Approaches / Cadres juridiques nationaux et approches législatives régionales. Berlin,

