Contemporary Piracy as an Issue of Academic Inquiry. A Bibliography

Compiled by Jan Stockbruegger, Brown University, and Christian Bueger, Cardiff University, for piracy-studies.org

Version: 3 September 2015

The aim of this bibliography is to gather a comprehensive collection of academic works on contemporary (post WWII) maritime piracy, with a focus on academic books, journals and working paper. In addition the bibliography includes some titles on the history of piracy, and some general interest literature on piracy.

The present version includes almost 600 entries. It documents the extent to which piracy has become a serious issue of academic inquiry, and how investigations of piracy contribute to general discourse and debates in International Relations, Area Studies, Maritime Studies, International Law, Criminology, and other disciplines.
